COMMUNITY POLICE ACADEMY

The Inglewood Police Department is currently looking for interested citizens to participate in the Department's Community Police Academy. The Community Police Academy is an 11-week academic program designed to provide interested Inglewood citizens with hands on knowledge about the various operational components of the Inglewood Police Department. Class instruction is provided by a select group of subject matter experts within the Police Department. Practical learning opportunities, such as conducting ride-along activities with patrol officers, will also be available to the participants.

The Community Police Academy meets every Wednesday from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM at Springfield College, located at 111 N. La Brea Avenue, Suite 101, room 7. The first session of the Community Police Academy will commence on Wednesday, September 15, 2010.

Inglewood citizens interested in the Community Police Academy are requested to contact Floyd Harris with the Police Community Affairs Section at telephone number 310.412.5530 or 310.412.5165. Mr. Harris can also be reached via e-mail at fharris@cityofinglewood.org.
